

Enviva at a Glance

Enviva is a leading global renewable energy company on a mission to displace coal, grow more trees, and fight climate change.

We employ 1,200 people across the globe.

We operate nine wood pellet plants across the U.S. Southeast.

We ship from five deep-water export terminals across the U.S. Southeast.

We have five corporate offices in key markets around the world.

Plant

Future Site

Port

Corporate Office

Enviva uses sustainably sourced, low-value wood to manufacture wood pellets, a renewable fuel source that generates electricity and heat around the world.

envivabiomass.com | @enviva f in @

Enviva's Economic Impact in Florida

 Port of Panama City

 Cottondale

We support more than 300 jobs across Florida.

Our average compensation is approximately 52% higher in Jackson county.

Enviva's total economic impact in Florida (the ripple effect of Enviva's investments and operational expenses) is forecasted to be $280 million annually.

We have invested $120 million in Florida.

Since 1953, wood inventory growing in Florida's working forests has increased by 81%.

We have committed to net-zero operations by 2030.

Across the U.S. Southeast, Enviva is on track to create and/or support an estimated 4,200 jobs and create nearly $3 billion in annual economic impact.

Updated April 2021

envivabiomass.com | @enviva    