

Growing and Thriving Forests

Forest Landscape

57%

of the total land area of the U.S. Southeast is covered in forest increase in forest inventory in the U.S. South since the 1950s

100%

2.5%

of forest area in the U.S. Southeast is harvested each year of the remaining forest is in various stages of regrowth

97.5%

<3%

of that harvested forest is used to produce wood pellets

Wood Pellets Accounted for 2.7% of Wood Removals in the U.S. Southeast in 2017

Learn more in our Corporate Sustainability Report

www.envivabiomass.com/sustainability/corporate-sustainability-report

envivabiomass.com | @enviva Twitter Facebook LinkedIn Instagram

Growing and Thriving Forests

Forest Economics

86%

of forests in the U.S. South are privately owned 29

ACRES

average size of a family forest in the U.S. South

$50B

in annual GDP generated by forests in the U.S. South

MORE THAN 2.9M

jobs supported by the forest industry across the U.S.

58%

of forests are held by family forest owners are held by Timber Investment Management Organizations, Real Estate Investment Trusts, and other private forestry groups in the U.S. South.

29%

60%

of the European Union's renewable energy grid is made up of the woody biomass and bioenergy industries which equates to

$107B in U.S. GDP

Learn more in our Corporate Sustainability Report

www.envivabiomass.com/sustainability/corporate-sustainability-report

envivabiomass.com | @enviva