

Enviva at a Glance

Enviva is a leading global renewable energy company on a mission to displace coal, grow more trees, and fight climate change.

We employ 1,200 people across the globe.

We operate ten wood pellet plants across the U.S. Southeast.

We ship from six deep-water export terminals across the U.S. Southeast.

We have five corporate offices in key markets around the world.

Plant

Future Site

Port

Corporate Office

Enviva uses sustainably sourced, low-value wood to manufacture wood pellets, a renewable fuel source that generates electricity and heat around the world.

envivabiomass.com | @enviva f in @

Enviva's Economic Impact in South Carolina

We support more than 300 jobs across South Carolina.

Our average compensation is approximately 35% higher in the counties where we operate.

Enviva's total economic impact in South Carolina (the ripple effect of Enviva's investments and operational expenses) is forecasted to be more than $200 million annually.

We have invested $157 million in South Carolina.

Since 1953, wood inventory growing in South Carolina's working forests has increased by 112%.

We have committed to net-zero operations by 2030.

Across the U.S. Southeast, Enviva is on track to create and/or support an estimated 4,200 jobs and create nearly $3 billion in annual economic impact.

Updated September 2021

envivabiomass.com | @enviva    